

2019 Economic Breakfast

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 2019

8am-10am | DoubleTree Hotel | 1111 Jefferson Road | Rochester, NY 14623

Gary Keith will give us his forecast for the local and regional outlook for 2019 followed by an insightful presentation from Danielle Hale on the housing market, its impact on our industry in 2019, as well as trends in new construction and remodeling.

Danielle Hale - Chief Economist, realtor.com®

Danielle develops and translates real estate trend data into consumer and industry insights and leads realtor.com®'s team of top analysts and economists. Before joining realtor.com® in July 2017, Danielle spent nearly a decade as an economist and policy researcher at the National Association of REALTORS®.

Gary Keith - VP and Regional Economist, M&T Bank

Gary provides economic research and analysis support to M&T's executive management and commercial banking business units. He gives frequent updates to business and trade groups, and holds regular discussions with M&T commercial customers, tying together the economic variables that describe the macro economy with real world business decisions.
