

Greater Rochester Association of REALTORS® Leadership Through Education Award Winners

NEW in 2024 In memory of Edith Lank. This award celebrates individuals who uphold the highest standards of excellence in educating and inspiring others. It recognizes a distinguished real estate professional who embodies generosity, dedication, and a passion for mentoring and teaching within the industry. The recipient shares their knowledge through various platforms—such as podcasts, video content, in-brokerage training, social media, classroom settings, online courses, casual lunch-and-learns, networking events, or direct-to-consumer education. Recipients of this award continue this legacy, making a lasting impact on both the professional and personal lives of their peers.

Danielle Clement (2024)

